Paul seems to inculcate the princideur of a national thanksgiving. Let us not fail to implore and trust Him a boat when he gets rich. He says in the carth "to make a joyful noise unto have as many boats as I want, there was called upon to do. He won his promotion by giving his whole to the Lord" for He is good, His merey is from everlasting—and from that scene, learn the glory and grandeur of a national thanksgiving. Let I think so too.
